Registration as a resident

Anmeldung auf dem Bürgeramt

back to start

To become a resident of Jena you have to register at the Citizens' Service Office (Bürgeramt) within two weeks after your arrival. All you need is your passport and confirmation of your address signed by the landlord (called Wohnungsgeberbestätigung).

<https://service.jena.de/wohnung-anmelden>

Forms for registration, as well as an appointment should be obtained in advance from the city's website

<https://service.jena.de/online-termin>

At this office, you will receive a certification of registration (Meldebescheinigung). You will need to show the certification of registration at the bank to open a bank account. Please keep it safe!

If you are on a working contract please apply online for your personal tax identification number with the Federal Central Tax Office (Bundeszentralamt für Steuern) at

https://www.bzst.de/DE/Steuern_National/Steuerliche_Identifikationsnummer/ID_Eingabeformular/ID_Node.html

Residence permit for non-EU citizens

Aufenthaltserlaubnis für Nicht-EU-Bürger

back to start

As a non-EU citizen, you have to apply for a residence permit after arriving in Jena. Please make an appointment at the Immigration Office as soon as possible, because the procedure to receive a residence permit takes six to eight weeks. You can make an appointment online only after registering at the Citizens' Service Office at

<https://tevisweb.jena.de/>

<https://service.jena.de/aufenthaltserlaubnis-ausbildung-und-studium>

<https://service.jena.de/aufenthaltserlaubnis-beschaeftigung>

You will need the following documents:

- Your passport
- A valid visa
- A copy of your MPI contract or grant
- A valid certificate of enrollment as PhD
- Proof of health insurance for the relevant term (no travel insurance)
- A copy of your rental contract
- One passport-sized photo (biometric standard, up-to-date)

As a citizen of the European Union, you do not need a work permit to live and work in Jena. After registration at the Citizens' Service Office, you get a Certification of free movement according to § 5 Freizügigkeitsgesetz/EU (law on free movement within the EU) by mail.

Insurances

Versicherungen

back to start

It is mandatory to buy health insurance in Germany as soon as you arrive.

If you are on a TVöD working contract and under a certain income limit, you have to join one of the statutory health insurance companies in Germany. Your premium will be automatically subtracted from your salary (the personnel dept. will help you).

Other kinds of insurance are:

- Personal liability insurance - Haftpflichtversicherung
- Household contents insurance - Hausratversicherung
- Car insurance – Autoversicherung

Daycare and school

Kindergarten und Schule

back to start

In Jena, every child of seven months or older has a rightful claim to a place in day care if both parents have a job, are students or in vocational training. Otherwise, they can attend a Kindergarten beginning at the age of one.
